POST-GAME QUOTES

Dick Toney, Hawaii - "They (CSUF) have a halluva defense. ~~They're~~ ^{Their} defensive statistics are, I think, are the best of anyone we've played against. When you consider the fact that they're the best defensive team we've played, and when you consider the fact that ~~they're~~ ^{they} offense sputters and ~~doesn't~~ ^{doesn't} put a lot of points on the board, that's a credit to their football team.

"We came through in the kicking game. We were able to kick the ball, punt it, and on a night like this, the kicking game gets magnified intensely. The difficulty in catching the ball and kicking it.

"We won the game without kicking game."

- o -

Gene Murphy, CSUF - "If you look around the room here, I think you'll see 48 very disappointed football players, some of them crying because they were not given the opportunity to win.

"It wasn't their mistakes that lost the game for them. You can surmise who I'm talking about, and I'm not going to be as cool and classless as they are. I think to say that I'm very unhappy would be the understatement of the year. Whether we, with those opportunities, could've won the game, I can't say.

Shingaga "By god I don't want to take anything away from Dick Toney and Hawaii. They won the football game period. You can't win a football game with only three points on the board."
