POST-GAME QUOTES

Hawai'i Coach Riley Wallace:

"I'm very proud of them. We made some mistakes early, trying to be a little bit spectacular. The guys just didn't have the legs down the stretch to do those kinds of things and we made some bad decisions, but overall you can never question the effort. The gameplan was good. We turned the ball earlier but the press was not as much a factor as I had feared it would be except on the inbound pass. They gave us some easy chances down and we didn't get off of it because we tried to do the spectacular and that really bothered me because those are points that you give away. So the guys learned, they got their heads down a little bit, but I was proud of the way they played tonight.

"In the end where we didn't finish the game against North Carolina, tonight in the end, we executed everything but the basket didn't fall to go into overtime. It was there, the penetration was there, the ball came off just where I wanted it to but we just missed that little tip-in."

Iowa Coach Tom Davis:

"I hated to see Hawai'i lose. I like Riley a lot and he's done a terrific job. So under those conditions, you empathize because I thought Hawai'i played awfully hard and awfully smart and they did a lot of things to disrupt us. My ballclub has just been finding a way to win -- the defense or the full-court or hitting the key shot. We're not perfect in other things, we know we can improve on them, but it was an awfully good win against a Hawai'i team that will get better and better.

"We are a totally different team without Jess Settles. We are very vulnerable without him. And with him it puts us at a different level...it makes our whole ballclub better. The combination of Settles and the less-experienced players give us a lot to learn with."
