POST-GAME QUOTES

New Mexico Coach Dave Bliss:

"I thought the Rainbows and the Lobos played a hard basketball game. We got off to a great start and we had the opportunity to really get in control of the game in the first half but we missed several one-and-ones down the stretch and the 'Bows got back in it. And in the second half we just didn't execute the way we needed to and Hawai'i came away with a pretty good win.

"It was an up-and-down game, typical of our inexperience. When you had a chance to win one on the road, you'd like to do that."

Hawai'i Coach Riley Wallace:

"We escaped, there's no question about it. We lost (Justice) Sueing and we lost (John) Molle to a 102 degree fever, then we had some guys late for a meeting, so things weren't right going into the game, plus we weren't feeling good about ourselves coming off an 0-2 road trip. Have to give New Mexico credit. They had some problems, but they came out and had a lot of energy in their game. They really got after us, defensively, rebounding, their three-point shooting, their penetration and they really made us play. I think we didn't wakeup until very late in the second half. We were lucky to hang around. They were up 13 and we bounced back and got into the ballgame. Our guys made some good decisions down the stretch, played some good defense, got some boards and made our free throw when we had to."
