DR. DONNIS THOMPSON INVITATIONAL HISTORY

Tournament History

For four decades, the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invitational has given women's golf teams from around the nation, and even some international teams, the opportunity to compete and share their athletic talents in one of the biggest tournaments in the 50th state.

The event began in 1986, and in that inaugural tournament, host Hawai'i proved they could compete with the best programs in the nation. UH tied with powerhouse Arizona for the team title – for its only tournament championship – and Rainbow Wahine Bobbie Kokx took the individual title with a score of 8-under par. In 1989, Jan Shiroma tied for first however lost in a sudden death playoff.

Within that year and the years following, 18 different teams have captured the tournament's title, with eight teams having won the title more than once (Arizona, 8; Oklahoma State, 5; Texas A&M, 4; Arizona State, 2; Stanford, 2; Georgia, 2; USC, 2; Texas, 2; and Sacramento State, 2). Arizona holds the record with eight tournament championships, including the 2015 title when they ran away with the championship by 25 strokes. Individually, Arizona has nine medalists while Texas A&M has five.

A total of 33 different women have earned medalist honors, five having repeated as champions. This impressive list includes Annika Sorenstam who, before going on to a standout professional career, took the individual title in 1991 & '92. Other repeat champions include San Jose State's Janice Moodie (1994, '97), Arizona's Krissie Register (1996, '99), Washington State's Kim Welch (1994, '95), and Idaho's Kayla Mortellaro (2009, '12).

The 54-hole team record is 822 (280-266-276) by Arizona State in 2024 when the tournament moved off-island for the first time at the Ocean Course Hokualea in Lihu'e, Kaua'i. The individual record was also broken in 2024 by ASU's Ashley Menne, who set the mark at 14-under 202.

In 1999, the tournament, previously named the Rainbow Wahine Invitational, was re-named as the Dr. Donnis Thompson Invitational in honor of UH's first women's athletics director. Dr. Thompson was inducted into the school's Sports Circle of Honor in 1988 for her tremendous achievements and many contributions to the UH Athletics programs. She was an avid supporter of women's equality, disagreeing with the idea that athletics were a "men's place" and that women had no place in sports. Dr. Thompson passed away in 2009 at the age of 75.

RAINBOW WAHINE FALL INVITATIONAL HISTORY

Tournament History

The University of Hawai'i women's golf program began hosting a fall tournament in 1997 with the Princeville Rainbow Wahine Fall Classic in Kaua'i and despite moving islands and golf courses, the team has continued to host a fall tournament ever since.

After two years on Kaua'i, the tournament moved to O'ahu at the Kapolei Golf Course as the Rainbow Wahine Fall Classic from 1999-2001. Kapolei hosted the tournament for 10 consecutive years (1999-2008) through the event's name change to the Kent Youel Invitational from 2002-08.

In 2009, the tournament moved to Turtle Bay Resort on O'ahu's North Shore as part of the Turtle Bay Resort College Invitational, which featured a men's division and was played on both the Fazio and Palmer courses. After two years at Turtle Bay, the tournament moved back to Kapolei as the Rainbow Wahine Invitational in 2011.

Leilehua Golf Course hosted the tournament for six straight years (2012-17) before relocating back to Kapolei in 2018 where it is currently held.

The Rainbow Wahine Invitational has been played for 26 years with a hiatus in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

UCLA has the most tournament titles with five while Sacramento State (3), Baylor (2), Florida International (2), and San Francisco (2) have also won multiple titles. In addition, five Bruins have won medalist honors while Baylor, BYU, Sacramento State, Stanford, and Washington each have two individual winners.

Host UH does not have a team title in the event although Melanie Matsumura tied for first in 1999 but lost in a sudden death playoff. The Rainbow Wahine has three runner-up finishes most recently in 2015.

ANUENUE SPRING BREAK CLASSIC HISTORY

Tournament History

The University of Hawai'i hosted the inaugural Anuenue Spring Break Classic in 2012 at Kapalua's Bay Course which attracted several top programs among the field of 14 teams. The tournament gained in popularity over the years including two-time winner UCLA.

The Bay Course hosted the tournament for seven years, taking off in 2016 when Kapalua hosted the Big West Championship instead. The COVID-19 pandemic cancelled the 2020 event and the tournament returned in 2021 with a condensed field and a new home at Ka'anapali's Royal Golf Course. The tournament was not held in 2022 and 2024.

Host Hawai'i shared its only Anuenue title with Louisville in 2018 while UH's Kaci Masuda captured medalist honors with a 4-under 212 total.
